THE MOST HOLY TRINITY (B)
26th May 2024

First Reading: Deuteronomy 4:32-34,39-40 Second Reading: Romans 8:14-17 Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20

The story is told of a priest sitting in an airport waiting for his flight to be announced. A fellow passenger next to him struck up a conversation. Said he, "Father, I believe only what I can understand. So, I can't buy your Trinity. Perhaps you can explain it to me." The priest reluctantly put down his newspaper and said, "Do you see the sun out there?" "Yup." "OK, it's 80 million miles away from us right now. The rays coming through the window," said the priest, "are coming from the sun. The delightful heat we are enjoying on our bodies right now comes from a combination of the sun and its rays. Do you understand that?" The fellow answered, "Sure, padre."

The Trinity, the priest went on, "is like that. God the Father is that blazing sun. The Son is the rays He sends down to us. Then both combine to send us the Holy Spirit who, in this context, is the heat. If you can understand the workings of the sun, its rays, and heat, why do you have difficulty with the Trinity?" Man muttered something about catching a flight and left. The priest, a professor of physics at a Catholic college, picked up the sports section of his newspaper with a broad smile on his face. He doubted whether his recent guest understood the workings of the sun. He knew no one this side of the grave would ever comprehend the mystery of the Trinity.
